

BIOGRAPHY

Craig R. Enochs Jackson Walker L.L.P

Craig Enochs represents companies in deregulated energy transactions such as asset-based structured transactions including tolling, fuel supply, off-take and power purchase agreements; transactions for the purchase and sale of energy-related commodities such as natural gas, electric power, coal, and renewable energy credits; transmission arrangements and transportation for these commodities; and commodity-based financial derivative transactions. He has expertise in negotiating the standardized master agreements used in these transactions, including the ISDA, EEI, WSPP, NAESB, GISB, GasEDI and EEI Master Netting Agreement. He also assists retail gas and electric marketers with their supply and sales transactions.

Education:

B.A., cum laude, University of Houston

J.D., University of California Hastings College of Law

Mr. Enochs was Executive Editor of the West Northwest Journal of Environmental Law and Policy.

Publications & Speaking Engagements:

Mr. Enochs presented An Analysis of the EEI and NAESB Master Agreements and How They Can Help You at the Texas Utility Lawyers Association 2003 Conference. He was co-author/presenter of Early Termination and Liquidation Provisions in Energy Trading and Marketing Agreements, presented at the University of Texas School of Law 1st Annual Gas and Power Institute, and he co-authored Energy Agreements and Bankruptcy, presented at the 2nd Annual Gas and Power Institute. Mr. Enochs was also co-author/presenter of How to Use the ISDA Master Agreement, presented at the 28th Annual Ernest E. Smith Oil, Gas & Mineral Law Institute, 2003 Corporate Counsel Update, and South Texas College of Law Power Institute. He is the author of 2002 ISDA Update and "Gone Today, Here Tomorrow: Policies and Issues Surrounding Wildlife Reintroduction," West Northwest Journal of Environmental Law and Policy 4 (1997).